

Suicidal Subjects Response – Impacts – Frontline Safety

For Law Enforcement, Fire Fighters, EMS, Corrections, and Probation
Useful Training for Health Care Professionals, Chaplains, and Teachers

March 23, 2010 8 am- 5 pm

Hosted by: Paso Robles Police Department
Held at: 900 Park St., Paso Robles, CA 93446

Taught by Janet Childs, Veteran CISM/CISD Instructor and Veteran Public Safety and Use of Force Instructor Barry Lewis

POST Plan IV
8 hours of EMS C.E.
$97 tuition

- Risk Assessment and Threat Management
- Techniques, Tactics, and Procedures that Support Effective and Safe Responses
- Post Traumatic Incident Stress - Understanding & Managing
- Managing the Scene: Emergency Responder Coordination
- Trauma and Stress: Indicators of Suicidal Behavior
- What to Expect in the Aftermath of a Completed Suicide

Techniques for Safely Responding to Suicidal Subjects

This one-day course is POST approved for Law Enforcement and Dispatchers, Plan IV, Technical, Certification Number 1082-20801-09-004 and EMSA Certified for Emergency Medical Responders, EMS CE Number # 41-0018 for 8 hours of C.E.

9-1-1 Dispatchers are welcome, but should consider attending the “Dealing with Suicidal Callers” course, which includes additional dispatch-specific information.

TO REGISTER:

On The Web: www.TrainingForSafety.com

By Phone: (650) 692-0437 Extension 107 By Fax: (650) 692-6360

Training For Safety, Incorporated is a California nonprofit, public-benefit, 501 (c)(3) corporation.